Hluboká nad Vltavou Castle

Formerly a Gothic castle, it was entirely rebuilt in the Windsor style in 1840-1871. The chateau has 140 chambers, 11 towers and bastions and two court-yards. Here are amassed superb collections of gobelins, paintings, carved furniture, glass, china and collections of historical arms. The inseparable part of the chateau is the Mikoláš Aleš South Bohemian Gallery, which is within the premises of the former chateau's riding-hall.

Český Krumlov

The famous town listed by UNESCO as a world historic site in 1992, once the seat of the noble families of Vítkovec, Rosenberg, Eggenberg and Schwarzenberg. The Český Krumlov state chateau and castle is the second-largest castle complex in the Czech Republic after that of Prague.

České Budějovice

České Budějovice, a historical town of 100.000 inhabitants, founded in 1265, is the cultural and administrative centre of South Bohemia. It is located about 150 km south of Prague. The most beautiful area of the town is the monumental square-shaped square named after the King Přemysl Otakar II, lined with Gothic, Baroque and Classical buildings with a completely preserved system of arcades all around. In the centre of the square, there is the Baroque fountain with the statue of Samson, which dates back to the 1720.
